Additional Information

We will have many make and takes available for purchase (proceeds go toward the fundraiser). If you are new to paper crafting and/or you would like to take the opportunity to make some of your own greeting cards, you are invited to stop by for a few hours FREE of charge. You will not have a table available for working on your own projects without reserving a table for $20 in advance.

*The Home and School Organization is planning to have something available for two meals. We will be asking for a free will donation. You are also welcome to bring your own meals or eat out if you wish. If you like to bake and would like to bring a desert or other dish, we won't turn it away-Promise! If you bring a dish to share, you will receive an extra raffle ticket!

*There will be many paper crafting products available for purchase.

*Scrappin' for School is NOT limited to scrapbooking. We welcome all crafters (quilters, card makers, digital scrap bookers, basket weavers, knitters, and those who crochet, just to name a few.)
