+ Twelfth Sunday In Ordinary Time

FRAUD ALERT!!! A parishioner contacted me earlier in the week asking if I was soliciting “gift cards” for the elderly and the needy? Apparently, he received an email that was supposed to have been from me. I told him that I did not send any email out requesting help. In case any of you get something like this know it is not from me. As I have told you before, if I ever solicit or request contributions from you, I will always inform you well ahead of time through my bulletin letter or through direct mail. There are all kinds of scams out there so if you get something suspicious, contact me directly.

Here are a couple of important reminders about next weekend, June 27/28: This is the last weekend for contributions to this year’s diocesan annual appeal. If you have not made your contributions make a check out to Diocesan Annual Appeal and put it in a separate envelope for the Sunday collection, or get it to our parish office in Stanley by the end of the fiscal year.

Secondly, next weekend will be the last Sunday Mass in Boyd until we reopen again near Christmas. The 10:30 am Sunday Mass will be at Holy Family Church in Stanley beginning Sunday, July 5th. It is a good thing we are beginning our project now as the Patten Street project in Boyd is inching up to our block. Much of the road has already been averted. If anyone comes to a weekday Mass during construction, make sure you park in the parking lot rather than on the street. Trucks are coming and going all the time.

Thanks to all who helped with the thrift sale this year, to those who donated, and to those who bought items. Have a blessed, and hopefully dry weekend!

Fr. Felix

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

How to Grow in Eucharistic Devotion (Even When You're Busy)

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life—but how do we actually grow in devotion to it in the middle of everyday life? In this episode of Practicing Catholic, Taylor Kemp and Scott Hefelfinger explore the beauty of the Eucharist and simple, practical ways to deepen your relationship with Christ.

Source—Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship

— June 21, 2026 —

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings highlight the importance of trust, helping us feel valued and motivated to deepen our faith as we seek to live the stewardship way of life.

The Lord knows that facing our fears and trusting Him in all areas of our lives is an ongoing challenge for us. He is generous with reassurances to us throughout the Scriptures. Today's Gospel passage from Matthew is a case in point. In the span of eight verses, Jesus addresses the topic of fear four times.

- "Fear no one."
- "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul."
- "Rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body."
- "So do not be afraid."

And the reassurance continues. "Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted." Highlighting that Jesus calls God "your Father" helps us feel comforted and reassured of His intimate care for us.

With that, let us all breathe a huge sigh of relief. All is well. Our Father knows us through and through, sent His Son to save us, and will always take care of us.

Let's stop wasting any more time with fear. Instead, let's live with confidence, putting all our energy, talents, and treasures into trusting this great and loving God, using all that we are and all that He has given us to bring Him glory.
