Week of June 28, 2026

Pier Giorgio Frassati: If I Didn't Have Love

This is a classic Italian film that celebrates the life of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901–1925), re-released in honor of his 2025 canonization. Frassati was a joyful, athletic young man from a wealthy Italian family who gave his life in service to the poor, the sick, and the marginalized as a powerful witness of Christian charity. An avid mountain climber and leader in Catholic youth and social action, he died of polio at 24, leaving a lasting legacy of faith and joy.

Saint Peter

Watch the epic story of the spread of Christianity during the early years of the Church. This film follows the journey of St. Peter through his martyrdom on a cross.

Paul the Apostle | The Bible Collection

The church's greatest enemy became Christ's most prolific messenger. Beautifully shot in the Moroccan desert, Paul the Apostle is a sweeping saga of the man who brought the Gospel to the Western world.

Pastor's Journal...
Fr. William P. Felix

28 June 2026
+ Thirteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

As I mentioned last weekend, as we approach the end of the fiscal year this week, we were short $14,205.00 of our goal for the Diocesan Annual Appeal. A big thank you goes to those who helped decrease that deficit by $12,104.98, leaving us with a $2,100.02 deficit. This is the last weekend to reach our goal without having to pay an additional 7% interest on the remainder. If you haven't contributed yet your help would be much appreciated.

Some folks have been asking if I am in a summer show this year at the Heyde Center. The answer is yes. We are doing Mama Mia. Besides being a Broadway production, most people know it from the movie version starring Meryl Streep back in 2008. Even more familiar is the music produced by the rock group, ABBA. As one might guess, my role will be the Greek priest, Fr. Alexandrios, who performs the wedding in the show. Type casting aye! The show will run from Thursday, July 16 through Sunday, July 19. Contact the box office at the Heyde Center for tickets.

Some of you have been asking about our annual parish golf scramble. This year it will be a bit later, Saturday, October 3rd. Save that date! The reason it is later is that I will be leading a pilgrimage this year to Spain from September 14-26. October 3rd was the first available date. We also wanted to schedule our event when most of the fundraising events were over and people still had a little golf in them before winter set in!

Please remember that this is the last Sunday for Mass in Boyd until we reopen at Christmas. Please help to get the word out. The 10:30 Mass will begin at Holy Family in Stanley next weekend.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Felix

Source—Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship
— June 28, 2026 —

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today’s readings take us back to some basics of stewardship living and demonstrate the genius of this way of life.

Our First Reading, from 2 Kings, shows us the necessity and power of hospitality. It recounts the story of a woman who showed loving hospitality to a visitor, inviting him to dinner with her family and arranging a room for him in their home so that he would have a comfortable place to stay during his travels through her town. She reached out to the man in a simple, practical way to make him feel welcome, and was rewarded in an extraordinary way.

In our Second Reading, from the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us of the power of our Baptism and how this sacrament makes us disciples. What does that mean for us here and now? St. Paul tells us very clearly: “You must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.” We must live for Christ! Nothing less will do.

Our Lord proclaims this same instruction in a rather shocking way in our Gospel passage from Matthew: “Whoever finds his life [by living for oneself] will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” But how do we lose our lives? Precisely through loving actions towards others, loving them as if they were Christ. “Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple... he will surely not lose his reward.”

The simple brilliance of stewardship living — only our infinitely creative and compassionate God could conceive it!

The Love of Jesus Christ

Jesus loves each person unconditionally, seeing their goodness and their potential. Jesus proves His love by giving His life on the Cross for every person so that our sins can be forgiven and we can be reunited with the Father. Jesus desires that we grow in love of Him, others and ourselves so that each of us can become the person He created us to be.
