26 July 2026
+ Seventeenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Each summer a priest is assigned to our parish from the diocesan Missions Office to preach and to make an appeal for financial assistance for the missionary apostolate they represent. This year, Fr. Jinu Joseph, a Vincentian Missionary will be coming the weekend of August 8-9. The Vincentian Missionaries are a Roman Catholic society of priests and brothers founded by St. Vincent de Paul in Paris in 1625. They are dedicated to preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ, serving the materially poor, and training future clergy. They have an extensive global outreach, especially to Kenya, Ethiopia, Panama, Mozambique and Bolivia. They also have outreach to care for the underserved in the United States. I hope you will welcome Fr. Joseph, as you have received and assisted the missionaries that have come in the past.

I will be away that weekend taking a short summer vacation. I have no other plans for this summer as we are focused on the construction project. Fr. Joseph will be coming into Eau Claire by bus on Saturday, August 8. On Sunday he has to leave immediately after the 10:30am Mass in Stanley to catch a flight at 4:40pm from Central Wisconsin Airport in Mosinee, between Wausau and Stevens Point, on his way to Toronto, Canada. I am in need of someone willing to drive him to the airport. Let me know if you are willing. You will be paid mileage for the roundtrip (140 miles total.) Please let me know if you can help me out.

J. Sue

Source—Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship
— July 26, 2026 —
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The stewardship way of life can be described as a daily pursuit of the Kingdom of Heaven. In today's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus uses a series of parables to help us grasp the incomparable value of that Kingdom.

First, He reminds us that living for Him and His Kingdom requires sacrifice. Yet the joy of following Christ makes any sacrifice worthwhile. Jesus says, "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." He then compares the Kingdom to "a merchant searching for fine pearls." When the merchant finds a pearl of great price, he gladly sells everything he has to obtain it.

In both parables, the Kingdom is something precious that must be sought and recognized. We must intentionally look for it amid the world's distractions and noise.

Yet Jesus also reminds us that the Kingdom is meant for everyone. He compares it to a net cast into the sea that gathers fish of every kind.

At the same time, He reminds us that each of us will one day be judged. The angels "will separate the wicked from the righteous." It is a powerful reminder that our choices matter.

Let us pray for the wisdom to recognize the Kingdom of Heaven in our midst and to pursue it above all else. There is no greater treasure, and no greater source of joy, than a life lived as a faithful disciple of Jesus.
