Welcome One Home: The Power of Your Invitation

Though there are many reasons why Catholics stop attending Mass and other aspects of parish life, it is safe to assume the majority will only come back if they are personally invited. A simple invitation to someone who has been away from the parish can remind them that they are remembered, loved, and always welcome. A personal invitation can become the first step toward someone coming home. No matter how long someone has been away or what circumstances have shaped their journey, the Catholic Church remains a place where God's mercy, healing, and love are always offered. If even one person is absent from our parish family, their absence has an impact on the community.

Important Words to Know and Understand

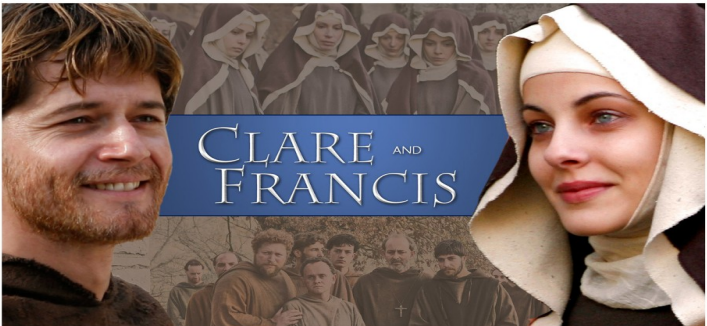

Characteristics of a Disciple of Jesus Christ: Prayer

The second characteristic of a disciple is that we are committed to times of prayer on a daily basis, both individually and with family, and frequently with the parish, where we are thankful to God for the blessings of the day and we seek His will. Prayer becomes an important part of our life.

The Catechism describes prayer as our “vital and personal relationship with the living and true God” (CCC 2558). Our life of prayer manifests itself in different ways, such as the silent time we take each day to be present to Jesus, the celebration of the Mass, the sufferings we offer up and the opportunities to pray with others in need. CLARE AND FRANCIS

Clare and Francis

This outstanding movie is unique among films about St. Francis because of the historical accuracy of the story and its authentic spirit of joy and piety so characteristic of Francis, as well as the major role played by Clare. Both founded major religious orders, and together they inspired many to follow their radical call to live the Gospel.

+ Twentieth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Another SCAM ALERT... Several parishioners contacted me this week about receiving a text from me with the same message: "Hello _____, When you're available please let me know. There's something I need your help with. I'm heading into a meeting now and will have limited availability for calls, so please respond with text. - Father William Felix." If you received anything like this delete or report it. It's not from me. I am glad parishioners spotted this and knew it was a fraud. Again, any message from me will not be vague or phishing. I certainly will never be asking for personal information or money. I am not sure exactly how the information they have got to them? It seems from my phone and contact information?

In just a couple of weeks our schools will be back in session. I am sure this is a welcomed event for many. Friday night high school football will lead the beginning of fall sports. We hope and pray for a safe and good school year for all of our youth. Here at St. Joseph School in Boyd we are making special preparations for our children, especially during construction for the first half of the school year. Safety has been the first item on the agenda for our construction meetings, and our school children in particular. Our project manager, Michael, and our construction supervisor, Jeff have the school schedule for 2026-2027. Russ will be in regular contact with both of them, especially when equipment and construction supplies are in service. Great care will be taken when students are out on the playground for recess and going back and forth from the school to the church. We will continue to have the weekly Mass with our children during the school year.

This week preparation work is being done to the face of the current church, doing necessary washing and tuck pointing of the façade. In the next two weeks we should be able to see the structure rise from the foundation. The entryway cut into the basement will not take place until the new structure is completely covering the entrance to avoid any water issues along the way. The elevator shaft will be prepared, but the new elevator will not be installed until a new three-phase service is connected by Xcel Energy. The church and rectory will have this new service, but it will not affect the school.

Enjoy the last few weeks of summer vacation. Blessings and best wishes,

J. Qui

Source—Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship

— August 16, 2026 —

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today’s Gospel from Matthew reminds us to trust the Lord even when it seems He is not answering our prayers.

God desires to lead us to the joy of heaven and eternal life with Him. To help us grow in faith and live each day as a grateful response to His goodness, He calls us to embrace stewardship as a spiritual practice. This is what the stewardship way of life is meant to accomplish. At times that process is difficult. Often, it stretches us beyond our comfort.

Jesus certainly challenged the Canaanite woman in today’s Gospel. She cried out to Him on behalf of her daughter, who was tormented by a demon. How did Jesus respond to this desperate mother’s plea? At first, He “did not say a word in answer to her.” Undeterred, she continued to seek Him, and He continued to test her faith. This reminds us that perseverance in faith is vital, even when answers seem delayed, fostering resilience and hope in our journey.

She responded with such remarkable trust that Jesus proclaimed, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” Hearing those words from our Lord reminds us of the importance of living in faithful discipleship. There could be no greater affirmation of a life committed to trusting God’s plan and living as stewards.

The stewardship way of life will test our trust in God at times. But those are often the moments when He is doing His greatest work within us. Let us persevere in faith, trusting that His plan is always leading us toward the joy He has prepared for us, and that trusting in His plan deepens our faith and spiritual growth.

Important Words to Know and Understand

Characteristics of a Disciple of Jesus Christ: Receives the Sacraments

The third characteristic is that a disciple prayerfully encounters Jesus on a regular basis through the sacraments of the Church and lives in the power of the grace they have received through them.

A Catholic disciple of Jesus Christ understands that sacraments are “the” way of receiving God’s grace. We are made children of God through Baptism. We are forgiven of our sins through Reconciliation. We receive the Body and Blood of Jesus through the Eucharist. Jesus also instituted the Sacraments of Confirmation, Matrimony, Holy Orders, Anointing of the Sick for the sake of our salvation, so that the power He displayed in His public ministry would continue through the sacraments He gave to the Church. A disciple of Jesus frequently receives and cooperates with the graces he or she has received through the sacraments.
