Encounter Jesus!

Pray with a Scripture Passage

In Luke 10:38–42, Martha is busy serving while Mary sits at the feet of Jesus and listens. Martha is “anxious and worried about many things,” but Jesus tells her, “Mary has chosen the better part.”

Most of us understand Martha. Our minds are crowded with responsibilities, decisions, worries, and unanswered questions. Even our prayer can become another activity: something to accomplish or a list of needs to present to God.

Yet Jesus invites us to something deeper. He invites us to sit with Him, listen to Him, and receive His unconditional love.

More Than Guidance... We all want God’s direction. Sometimes we seek His guidance about the larger questions of life: What is my purpose? Where are You leading me? At other times, our prayer is an urgent cry for help with a difficult decision, relationship, illness, or crisis.

But beneath our questions lies an even deeper need. More than guidance, we need the Guide. More than a particular answer, we need to know that Jesus hears us, remains with us, and loves us.

Christian prayer is not merely the exchange of information. It is a living relationship with Jesus.

Think of someone you love. You make time to talk, listen, and simply enjoy that person’s presence. Jesus desires this kind of personal relationship with you. The invitation begins with Him. Prayer is our response to the God who already seeks us and is always available to us.

A Meeting Place with Jesus One of the most fruitful ways to grow in our relationship with the Lord is to pray with Sacred Scripture.

This ancient form of prayer is called Lectio Divina, Latin for “Divine Reading.” It is not simply reading the Bible to gain information. It is approaching God’s Word expecting to encounter the living Christ. Scripture becomes a privileged meeting place where Jesus speaks and we respond (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2708).

The movement of Lectio Divina resembles the natural deepening of a friendship:

Read. Spending time with and getting to know Jesus takes place in slowly reading a particular Scripture passage. Do not rush. Notice the people, actions, and words and what stands out for you.

Reflect. Sharing what you think comes about in reflecting on the Scripture passage and summarizing it briefly in your own words. Notice the details of the story line that reading the passage and summarizing it will help you to notice.

Respond. Relating how you feel takes place in spontaneous prayer as you answer three, simple questions that lead you to become involved with the passage. Speak honestly with Jesus. This conversation fosters a movement from your head to your heart as the Holy Spirit may connect the Scripture with something from yesterday, last year, or long ago.

Rest. Take time to quiet down inside. Rest peacefully in God’s presence. Don’t try to produce a special feeling or fill the silence. Simply be with Jesus. Listen for a word, thought, invitation, or gentle assurance placed upon your heart.

Like a friendship, prayer begins with words and gradually deepens into trust, intimacy, and peaceful communion. Two good friends can sit together without speaking as a relationship built on trust has made silence comfortable. God desires this closeness with each of us.

Choose the Better Part Jesus is inviting you today: “Come away from the noise. Open your Bible. Sit with Me. Listen to My voice through the words of Scripture.”

You do not need Biblical expertise or perfect concentration. Bring to Jesus your real life and an open heart. Begin with ten quiet minutes. Read a short Gospel passage from the Gospel of Luke a few times, respond honestly, and rest with Him. A simple prayer guide is available at diolc.org/PrayWithScripture.

Pope Benedict XVI said that prayerful reading of Scripture could bring about “a new spiritual springtime” in the Church. That renewal begins whenever one person opens God’s Word with a desire to know Him better.

Jesus is waiting. Will you choose the better part?

The Pastor's Journal...

Fr. William P. Felix

30 August 2026
+ Twenty-Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

This week was very productive for the Boyd project. The masons were here and made good headway on the walls and elevator shaft. In the next two weeks we should see the skeleton structure of the new addition, including door and window and roof blocking and the structural steel framing and decking. During the week of September 14th we are expecting to begin the masonry veneer work and roofing on the new addition. Sometime during the weeks of September 14th and 21st Excel Energy and Roshell Electric will come to switch the current electrical service of the church and rectory to three-phase. Power will be down for a short period of time while this is happening. In the meantime, the Patten Street project continues to progress.

Every two years I lead a group on a pilgrimage. This year we are going to Spain. I will be away from September 14th through September 26th. During that time please remember to contact Deacon Willkom for any pressing pastoral needs. One of the things I am most concerned about is the anointing of the sick and dying for those in near occasion of death. This can only be done by a priest. If I am unavailable, priests in our area are willing to come and anoint if they are contacted in time. Those in Eau Claire hospitals should contact the pastoral care folks in each hospital to contact a priest for the anointing. They should have a contact list for this purpose. Given the number of hospitals and healthcare facilities in our area, it is impossible to cover on my own in short notice. This is the same for those who might be sent to hospitals much further, such as Wausau, Marshfield, Medford, etc. Don't hesitate to ask the pastoral care department in these facilities to help you.

We could use more teams for our golf invitational on Saturday, October 3rd at Whispering Pines. We are having to do some work on our parish websites and could sure use some help. If any of you would be willing to help with this, please contact Julie in the parish office. It will be greatly appreciated. Labor Day is next weekend. Our first bingo is Tuesday, September 8th. The pot was held over from Memorial Day at around $3200! Spread the word!

Blessings and best wishes,

Fr. Qui

Source—Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship
— August 30, 2026 —
Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Living the stewardship way of life is never easy. It calls us to die to self and to live for Christ and others through sacrifice and surrender, yet it is the path that gives life its truest meaning.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus says, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me.” These words challenge us because they run against our desire for comfort and control. Yet Jesus is not asking anything of us that He has not first lived Himself. He gave everything for us on the Cross and continues to give Himself to us in His Word and in the Eucharist.

Each day, we choose to live either for ourselves or for God and others. The first path may seem easier, but it leaves us empty. The way of Christ is more demanding, yet it leads to joy, peace, and eternal life. May we have the courage to take up our cross each day and offer our lives back to Him in gratitude and love.

Important Words to Know and Understand
Characteristics of a Disciple of Jesus Christ: Obedience

The fourth characteristic is that we seek to understand and obey the teaching of Christ as passed on to us through the Apostles and modern-day apostles of the Catholic Church, which are the bishops.

The Church is our Mother and she shares with us the revelation of Jesus. The disciple understands there is not a difference between what Jesus taught and what the Church teaches, just as the head cannot be separated from the body. He or she humbly seeks to learn more about what God has revealed through the Church and live in obedience to it.
