Don Simon Knight of Month: The reason Don Simon was chosen as Knight of Month is because he turned 100 years old on September 26th. Don is the only surviving charter member of Emer-Quinn Council, so he has been a member for 77 years. During that time Don chaired numerous events and worked at many of the activities that the KC’s had. He has served as Grand Knight for one-year, Financial Secretary for thirteen years, and Treasurer for 16 years. He played the role of Grand Knight for the first-degree team for more than 45 years and did an excellent job playing that role. He was active still in his eighties. Best wishes on your 100th birthday and we hope you have many more birthdays.

Membership Report: Some information on council membership. As of September 1, the council has 121 members. Sixty-three are associated members and fifty-eight are insurance members. Seventy-one members must pay yearly dues of $25.00. One member does not have to pay because of disability. Thirty-seven members that do not have to pay dues because they are life members, which means they are 70 years old and have been a member for twenty-five years or more. There are 54 first degree members, 1 second degree member, 58 third degree members, and 8 fourth degree members.

Punt, Pass, and Kick Competition: Results of the local competition held on September 24 at 5:30 pm at Caswell Field had fifty-one participants. Forty-four boys and seven girls. Thanks go to Tom Hause for chairing this successful program. Also, thanks go to Lynn Hause and Kim Goettl, all the parents and KC members that helped Tom. First place winners in each age category advance to Diocesan level October 11th in Mauston.

Notice of Members’ Illness: Please contact Russ Pogodzinski (715-667-3485) to report a member’s illness or hospitalization. We ask this so we can send our Brother Knight a card conveying our best wishes and prayers.

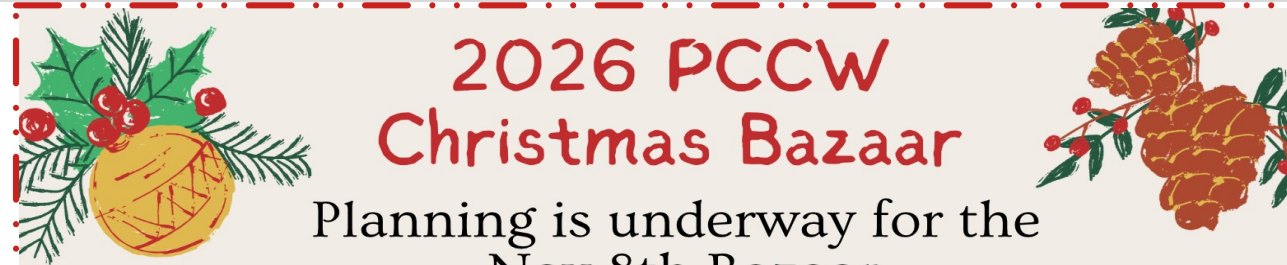

Attendance Drawing: The September attendance drawing was won by Joe Kiebles.

18 October 2026
+ Twenty-Ninth Sunday In Ordinary Time

This year All Saints Day, the patronal feast day of our parish, falls on a Sunday and is celebrated at all of the weekend Masses. This also marks the beginning of special prayers for our beloved dead. It is also time for you to renew or enroll your deceased loved ones in the All Souls Novena of Masses, offered once a month throughout the year. To renew or enroll your loved ones use the envelope provided in your quarterly packet you receive through the mail. If you can't find that envelope, there should be extras in each of our churches or our parish office. The first novena Mass is always on All Souls Day, November 2nd. Even though we normally do not have a public Mass on Mondays, I will be offering a Mass that day at St. Rose of Lima Church in Cadott at 6:30pm. I especially encourage those who are offering the novena of Masses to come, if possible.

I am also going to take the opportunity, this November, to speak a bit about the importance of respecting the Catholic traditions of Christian burial, the proper disposition of the body or remains of the dead, and the importance and care of Catholic cemeteries. I am sure you are well aware of the fact that Christian burial is rapidly being replaced by various secular, and even pagan burial practices. I hear so often people read the obituaries of very devout Catholics only to discover that no services or rites are being done at church; rather, a brief prayer service is held at the funeral home or at the cemetery. Celebrations of life have somehow become the purview of the local bar. Strange things are happening to the cremated remains of loved ones. We encounter people digging a hole on family plots and burying ashes. We even encounter ashes being spread on top of graves. It is no wonder Halloween is becoming such a prominent "festival" in our culture.

All of this comes from a very radical change in our culture concerning the sanctity of the human body and person, a proper Christian understanding of death and eternal life, and a lack of connection to what we know in the Church as the communion of saints on earth, heaven, and in purgatory. If you have any particular questions or issues you would like me to address concerning these things, please send me an email.

We begin our Diocesan/Parish Annual Appeal this weekend. Please do all you can to help reach our goals and pay off our loans with your support. Blessings and best wishes to you all,

J. Qui

Source—Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship
— October 18, 2026 —

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings remind us to be mindful not only of who we are but also of whose we are, and once we know whose we are, we are sent to help others discover it as well.

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees try to trap Jesus by asking whether it is lawful to pay the tax to Caesar. Their question is meant to force Him to choose sides, but Jesus refuses to be drawn into their narrow way of thinking.

Instead, He asks whose image appears on the coin. When they reply, "Caesar," Jesus says, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Those words remind us that although we have responsibilities in this world, our first allegiance belongs to God. Everything we have comes from Him, and through Baptism we have been stamped with His image, made His sons and daughters, and sent, as the Thessalonians were in today's second reading, to be living witnesses of the Gospel wherever we go.

Our time, talents, treasure, and very lives are gifts entrusted to us by the Lord, not to be hoarded but to be used generously in His service and shared boldly with others. True stewardship is fundamentally missionary: when we willingly give what God has provided, our lives become a testimony that attracts others to Christ. May we offer these gifts each day with gratitude for His goodness, always remembering we belong to Him above all else. As His disciples, we are sent to invite others to join Him too.

October Is World Mission Month

What do The Pontifical Mission Societies do?

The Pontifical Mission Societies provide vital support to mission territories where the Church is too young, too poor, or too persecuted to sustain itself. TPMS enables the Church's presence in these areas through: Proclaiming the Gospel and evangelizing communities that have never encountered Christ.

Building churches and chapels as gathering places of faith and worship.

Supporting mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay leaders who minister to the faithful.

Providing humanitarian aid, including food, education, and medical care to the most vulnerable.

At the direct request of the Pope, TPMS ensures that the message of Christ reaches places where He has been forgotten, denied, persecuted, or shunned.

The societies care for young Churches until they can become self-sustaining—just as they once did for the Church in the United States, which was considered mission territory until 1908. Many Catholic churches across the U.S. were built thanks to the generosity of TPMS supporters worldwide.
