SLAVES AND KINGS

THE STORY OF ST. ANTHONY MARY CLARET

Slaves and Kings: The Story of St. Anthony Mary Claret (English Audio)

Following the life of St. Anthony Mary Clare—Archbishop, writer, publisher, social reformer, and confessor to the Queen of Spain—this film tells the compelling story of one of Spain's most popular preachers and founder of the Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

SENTIMENTS FOR SEMINARIANS

We can all help Seminarians by donating to the Annual Knights of Columbus

“Sentiments for Seminarians” Program

Since Seminarians are not paid and can not have a job, they are in need of our support. The most appreciated gifts are gas cards, pre-paid gift cards like Master Card and Visa.

What a great way to say “Happy Thanksgiving” and “Merry Christmas” to a Seminarian here in Wisconsin.

During the MONTH OF NOVEMBER, place your gift into the RED WRAPPED BOX, located in the entrance of each church. The Knights of this Parish will take care of collecting them and delivering them to the Bishops of Wisconsin to be distributed to our Seminarians.

We thank you in advance for your kind generosity.

(Save the Date) "Behold" Young Adult Retreat January 16, 2027 | Holy Cross Diocesan Center

All young adults ages 18-35 are invited to the 4th annual Behold retreat on Saturday, January 16, at the Holy Cross Diocesan Center in La Crosse. This year's theme is "Behold: I Stand at the Door and Knock." This retreat will examine themes of the interior life and what it really means to let Christ into our hearts.

The cost of the retreat is $30. Nursing infants are welcome! Contact Anne McMenomy-Rodman at dre@stpatsonalaska.com with any questions! Click on the QR Code to register.

Deacon Willkom and I were at our Fall Ministry Conference in La Crosse this past Monday. It is always great to get together with Bishop Battersby, and most of the priests and deacons of the Diocese of La Crosse, many we have not seen for a long time because of work and distance. Much of the conference was on the various lay-led organization in our diocese, and presentations from their leadership. Worldwide Marriage Encounter, Domestic Church, St. Vincent de Paul Society, and Catholic Charities were among the groups. It was good for all of the priests and deacons to meet and hear from such fine lay leaders in our diocese to foster collaboration among us. Bishop Callahan joined us for some of the conferences and dinner. Health is still an issue for him, but it was good he was among us. He lives at Holy Cross Diocesan Center in La Crosse where the conference was held.

What a wonderful meal the PCCW prepared last Sunday for the harvest dinner. I was stuffed, but it hit the spot. Thank you to all of those who helped prepare and serve the meal. Now the ladies are gearing up for the Christmas Bazaar on Sunday, November 8th. This is a busy time for them. All of your hard work and efforts are much appreciated. As I said in my homily last Sunday, our parish continues to stay strong and remains a living witness to Christ and the gospel because many continue to put Christ first, and not relegate religious faith and action to something secondary or out of the picture. Time, treasure, and talent is concrete witness of faith, building up the parish family and the body of Christ. Put God first, and your life will be blessed!

I mentioned briefly last Sunday that Whispering Pines Golf is, once again, participating in our school SCRIP program. The new prices for membership are out for 2027. If you get your membership through us, you receive a 10% discount and our school receives a 15% contribution. You need to use our special form to do this, which explains how to obtain your membership. I have forms in the sacristy of the church. Ask for one from me. This only applies before the end of the year 2026, so don't delay.

Have a blessed week and enjoy these beautiful fall days! Go Brewers!
Go Pack go!

J. Qui

Source—Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship
— October 25, 2026 —
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus calls us to love God with our whole heart and to love our neighbor as ourselves. Stewardship gives these commandments a daily shape: we offer God our time, talents, and treasure, then use them to serve others.

In Exodus, God asks His people to protect the stranger, the widow, the orphan, and the poor. Love becomes real when we notice those in need and respond with compassion.

Saint Paul praises believers whose faith has sounded forth beyond their community.

As missionary disciples, we are sent to do the same. By prayerfully giving generously of our time, talents, and treasure, we can support the Church’s mission and care for those in need.

How will you use the gifts God has entrusted to you this week to love Him and serve your neighbor?

-ALL SOULS' DAY -
NOVEMBER 02, 2026

The month of November is known for the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. During the month of November we will be displaying your deceased loved ones photo in the front of the church of your choice. We are asking to keep the pictures to 5 X 7 or smaller. Please put your name on the back of the picture. There will be a box in the Sacristy to place them in. Please have your picture in the box by October 31st. Please pick up your picture after November 30th.

Important Words to Know and Understand:
Profession of Faith

The Profession of Faith is a verbal expression of belief in what is revealed by God and taught by the Church. This is publicly professed in either the Apostles’ Creed or the Nicene Creed at Mass. The first words of the Creed are “I believe,” because faith is a personal response to God, accepting what He has revealed to be true. The Creed is a summary of the most important teachings of the Church.

“The Eucharist is the highway to heaven.”
- Bl. Carlo Acutis
