

All Saints PCCW Agenda

August 20, 2026 6:30PM

St Rose of Lima Church

Meeting called to order at 6:30pm

Opening prayer: Prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel

We started the meeting with Diane Weggen introducing the cash raffle that the PCCW will be starting immediately and drawing winners at the Christmas Bazaar in November. Ann Wagner volunteered to sell tickets at the hall on Tuesday nights before Bingo. Tickets will also be sold at the pork and sauerkraut dinner at All Saints Parish Hall. Tickets will be available for sale after all Masses.

Finance Report:

$9,675 deposits

$852.83 withdrawals

Approximate current balance $18,152.16 (there is a need to clarify exact PCCW balance with the financial administrator and will have a more accurate balance at the next meeting.)

Old Business:

- 1.Recap on puzzle tournament: It was a lot of fun. The winners were finished in about 80 minutes and there was a profit of $235.
- 2.Table refresh at St. Joseph-23 tables to clean and paint to freshen up the table bases that had gotten new tabletops. Jen will be getting estimates for new chairs for St. Joseph. 192 chairs would be needed and another 24 new chairs for St. Rose. These new chairs would replace the folding chairs. She will contact WI Bench in Thorp for estimates.
- 3.Outdoor beautification plan: Due to concrete problems in many areas, outdoor beautification projects are on hold until sidewalks and concrete pads are repaired.

New Business:

A request was brought forward for "RESERVED" pew signs for St. Joseph Church. Melissa Cochran will research options and present options and the request for funding at the Oct. meeting.

Pork & Sauerkraut dinner, Oct. 18th: In the past, parishioners have donated items like flour and other ingredients, so Lorrie Sonnentag (organizing the event) suggested having drop boxes at all the churches rather than having one drop off at Cadott. It was the consensus that this was a good idea since the event will be at the hall in Stanley and all items can be collected and taken to the hall.

Area events: Lorrie Sonnentag spoke about EC chapter of the Right to Life Committee having a “back to school bash” at the EC YMCA where they gave away back packs, haircuts, and items for families with adopted children. Apple Pregnancy Center is having a walk raising money for diapers and other needs for expectant mothers at the center.

Christmas Bazaar: Nov 8th. Put it on your calendar and be thinking about silent auction items.

Turkey Bingo: Is this something we’d like to do again. We had a free event at Easter time with a chance to win a turkey and the fixings to make an Easter dinner. Looking at the calendar for options for dates, there are only 2 dates available. It was decided not to have the event at this time.

Directory-Electronic version-if you want the electronic version, you will need to give your email address to Jen Rogalski and she will send a code for you to verify and you can gain access to the electronic directory.

New parishioner welcome packet: Marilyn Bowe made a motion to create baby bundles for expectant mothers and new babies of the parish as a welcome gift after registering for the gift. The motion was seconded by Denise Thornton. The motion passed unanimously. PCCW will fund this project and will look for someone to take the lead for this project.

Rosary for funerals: Who can lead the rosary at funerals? Flock note is the “blast messaging” platform that the parish has set up to communicate with parishioners. This could be used to send out a message to members to participate in the rosary at funerals at the families’ request.

Ann Wagner made a motion to purchase new vertical chair storage racks for the storage room in the hall not to exceed $3000. Jean Felber seconded the motion. The cost at Uline is $570 each. Motion passed unanimously. Jen Rogalski is developing ideas for repurposing the rolling racks that we currently use for storing the folding chairs. She has a concept to repurpose them into dual purpose, table linen storage and room dividers.

Meeting adjourned at 8:20pm

Closing prayer: Hail Mary

Next Meeting: September 17th, 6:30PM Stanley (Hall)

Minutes Approved by: Julie Lingen, Jean Felber, Diane Weggen, and Jen Rogalski
